

Uganda Martyrs University

School of Arts Social Sciences

Department of Governance, Peace and International Studies

Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration and Management

Year II & III: 2022/2023 Nkozi & Rubaga Campuses

Procurement and Contract Management

End of Semester One Examinations

Date: Tuesday 13th December 2022

Time: 9:30am-12:30pm

Instructions

- ✓ Proper English and handwriting should be used
- ✓ Any form of malpractice will be penalized
- ✓ Attempt any 4 questions

Questions

1. "Public Private Partnerships are a blessing in ensuring economic development and service delivery". Using relevant examples from the local setting discuss the reasons for the why PPPs are essential and highlight the misconceptions of PPPs. 25 marks.
2. Examine the common procurement fraud red-flags and show how procurement fraud and corruption can be controlled. 25marks
3. Describe the concept of consortium in public procurement and using relevant examples, provide a rationale for its encouragement by the various stakeholders with the disadvantages of consortiums. 25marks

4. Electronic procurement involves the acquisition of goods, services or supplies for an organization by web-based technology to support the key procurement processes including requisitioning, sourcing, contracting, order management and making payments.

a) As a procurement practitioner discuss the benefits of e-procurement in the economic business world? 15 Marks

b) Explain the Challenges of using E- procurement in private and public procurement Sectors.

10 marks

5. Describe the concept of green procurement, its benefits and discuss the challenges that the locals may face while embracing this concept in Uganda. 25marks

6. a) Why is under taking procurement audit necessary? 15marks

b) What are the 5 procurement "rights" considered in an audit? 10marks

End of the Question Paper

SUCCESS