

UGANDA MARTYRS UNIVERSITY

FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE

Bachelor of Science in Organic Agriculture

Special and Supplementary Examination: Academic Year 2014/2015

Module AG16: Applied Ethics and Social Accountability

September 2015

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Read and understand the question before answering
- Select and answer any Four Questions
- Do not write anything on a question paper
- You are allowed Three Hours for the examination

1. What is the link between ethics and organic agriculture in the world today?
2. What is the relationship between ethical theories and organic agriculture?
3. Genetically modified foods are on their way to flood the market stalls. As an organic farmer what would you advice the consumers using the consequential ethical theory.
4. What is the role of applied ethics and the normative ethics in practicing organic agriculture?
5. "The free choices of human beings make them what they want to be." As an organic agriculturalist critically analyse this statement.
6. As an Organic farmer what is your view on capital punishment in East Africa.
7. Using the Utilitarian ethical theory discuss the morality of homosexuality in Uganda today versus the global view.
8. An organic farmer wants to use law to foster her business, so that she will mix organic products and inorganic ones. Discuss the consequences, using law and ethics.