INSTRUCTIONS:

- (a) This is an open book examination. Students can come to the examination room with all the course lecture reference materials.
 - (b) This examination consists of four compulsory questions.
 - (c) Each question carries equal marks and YOUR ANSWER PER QUESTION SHOULD NOT EXCEED FOUR PAGES. Answers must be legibly written, succinct and supported by authorities and/or examples.
 - (d) YOU MUST USE ONLY ONE BOOKLET.

1. Discuss the deterrent effect of the death penalty in reducing murders. Is the death penalty more cost effective than lifetime imprisonment?
2. You have been appointed to serve on a national task force to deal with organized crimes in Uganda. Prepare and submit a legal memorandum that elaborates the types of organized crimes, applicable laws, challenges and strategies of controlling those crimes.
3. While organized crime and cyber-crime are distinct, the adoption of information and communications technology by organized criminal groups in pursuit of criminal activity, created a new branch of crime– the cyber organized crime – which some argue, is not organized crime in a strict sense. Discuss the validity of this assertion.
4. Clearly explain the substantive and operational interaction between organized criminal groups and other criminal groups.
