

UGANDA MARTYRS UNIVERSITY NKOZI
FACULTY OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT
THE LAW OF CONTRACT
BAM II (NKOZI)
SUPPLEMENTARY/SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS 2016

DATE: 26 JULY 2016

TIME: 3 HRS

---

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (i) Answer Two questions from each section.
  - (ii) Question No. Six is COMPULSORY. ALL questions carry equal marks.
  - (iii) You are advised to write legibly with clarity of expression.
  - (iv) Use of relevant examples and authorities shall earn you extra marks.
  - (v) DO NOT WRITE ANYTHING ON THE QUESTION PAPER
-

SECTION A

1. (a) Explain the composition, jurisdiction and administrative structure of Uganda's Supreme Court.
(b) Outline five
  - (i) Divisions of Uganda's High Court
  - (ii) High Court circuits
2. (a) Define the following concepts
  - (i) Municipal and international law
  - (ii) Primary and delegated legislation(b) Explain the arguments against delegated legislation
3. Distinguish between civil and criminal law

SECTION B

4. Outline and explain any five contracts which are illegal for being contrary to public policy
5. (a) Explain two justifications for the general rule that mistake does not affect the validity of a contract.

(b) With illustrations, explain two types of

- (i) Common mistake
- (ii) Unilateral mistake

6. Kamyuka aged 10, a son to Temangalo a rich politician, studies in one of Uganda's first world schools in Muyenga. Part of the school programme is computer training. Kamyuka is now a master in ms word and excel. He needs private training at home but there are no computers. On 22 January 2016, Jamwa offered to sell him a computer, which offer he accepted so that Jamwa did not bother to look for other buyers. Surprisingly when he delivered the computer to Kamyuka, the latter told him that he was no longer interested. Jamwa's wife was so disappointed with Kamyuka's action. To her, sons of big men should not trample on the rights of the poor. In the premises, she is determined to sue Kamyuka.

Required; Advise the parties

GOOD LUCK