

Uganda Martyrs University
Faculty of Agriculture

B. Agriculture 1, Semester I Final Assessment: 2014/2015
Course Unit: Project Planning and Management

Time: 04:00 am – 01:00 pm
Date: Monday, 4th May, 2015

Instructions:

Answer any four questions

Do not write anything on a question paper

Time: Three hours

---

1. Describe the factors considered to be against community involvement/participation in Project planning and management.
2. Distinguish between a project and a program and describe various characteristics of what constitutes a project you may be familiar with.
3. Mr. Kotevu was appointed a project coordinator in Nebbi district on poverty eradication amongst farmers. Why do you think it is important for him to involve community members in all project planning and management stages?
4. Describe the major components of a project a management cycle. At what phase do you think project monitoring and evaluation should be conducted, give reasons to support your answer.
5. If you were a project manager in your community, what would be the golden rules that you would advocate for successful management of the project?
6. Briefly explain the difference between a concept note and a project proposal. Describe the major sections of a project proposal.
7. What in your view are the major stages of a project lifecycle?