

Uganda Martyrs University
School of Arts and Social Sciences
DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNANCE, PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
BACHELOR OF ARTS IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DIPLOMACY
YEAR TWO: 2022/2023
IRD 31201: INTRODUCTION TO DIPLOMACY

End of Semester I Examination

DATE: WEDNESDAY 24TH MAY, 2023

TIME: 9:30AM-12:30PM

INSTRUCTIONS: Answer four, questions only (each question carry 25 marks)

1. With the current technological advancement in communication and transport evaluate why states should continue establishing and maintain overseas representation. You must specifically highlight the case of a country of your choice.
2. Given the present fear and international war on terrorism, analyse whether it is still justified to accord diplomats all the Diplomatic Immunities and privileges as stipulated in the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Immunities.
3. Prakash Chandra argues that the current diplomats are mere glorified clerks. To what extent do you agree with him please elaborate your opinion with relevant examples.
4. Compare and contrast the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations 1963 and the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations 1961.
5. "Recognition of states and governments in diplomatic practice is all about politics" Differentiate between the Constitutive theory and the Declaratory theory of recognition.
6. With clear illustrations analyse the essential elements which must be followed in organizing a conference as a meeting of plenipotentiaries.