

Uganda Martyrs University

Faculty of Science

Science, Technology & Ethics

Final Assessment

14 - 16/07/2021

Instructions:

Answer ALL three (3) questions

This is an Individual Final Assessment

Any indication of Collusion MAY necessitate a Special Review of your work.

Not more than two (2) typed pages for an answer from each question.

Due date: 16th July, 2021 - 23hrs by email

NB: You may contact the examiner for any clarifications

Questions

1. Success in business depends more on good information. How would you advise your government that Information Communication Technology and the Scientific Method are the key to having the good information?
2. Corona Virus is still causing a lot of untold suffering especially in poor countries like Uganda. How would you argue that Information Communication Technology could make a huge difference in fighting this pandemic?
3. A lot of people will try to revive or start new businesses after the current lockdowns. How would you help them to understand the importance of Accurate Information and its Timely Delivery in their business success?