

Uganda Martyrs University
School of Arts and Social Sciences
Department of Governance, Peace and International Studies
Bachelor of Local Governance and Human Rights
GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT
Supplementary Examination 2017/2018

Thursday 20th September 2018

9:30 am - 12:30 noon

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Please read the instructions carefully before answering the questions.
 - Answer three questions only.
 - Question one of section A is compulsory and carries 40 marks
 - Answer any two Questions from section B. Each question carries 30 marks
 - Start each question on a fresh page
 - All questions carry equal marks.
 - Do not write anything on this question paper.
-

SECTION A: COMPULSORY

1. About two in five victims of domestic violence are men, contradicting the wide spread impression that it is always women who are left battered and bruised...Campaigners claim that men are often treated as second class victims and police forces and council do not take them seriously...

Task

- a) With relevant examples explain the forms of violence some men experience in your community (8 marks)
- b) Briefly explain the reasons for male silence on this issue (8 marks)
- c) Suggest strategies to undo this problem (8 marks)
- d) Discuss how patriarchal structures have contributed to gender inequality in your society (8 marks)
- e) With relevant examples from your community explain how gender parity can be realized (8 marks)

SECTION B: ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS FROM THIS SECTION

2. a) Examine the African Feminist Theory (15 marks)
b) Clearly show the difference between African feminists and Western Feminists (15 marks)

3. With relevant examples from your community, briefly describe your understanding of the following concepts
 - a) The triple role(5 marks)
 - b) Practical and strategic needs(10 marks)
 - c) Empowerment(5 marks)
 - d) Gender equality(5 marks)
 - e) Gender analysis(5 marks)
4.
 - a) Examine the liberal feminist theory(20 marks)
 - b) With relevant examples from your country show the significance of this theory (10 marks) 5.
 - a) Explain the challenges to the democratization process in your country(15 marks)
 - b) Briefly explain the principles of democracy (5 marks)
 - b) Suggest strategies to ensure that the democratic principles work well for gender parity and development of your country (10 marks)