Instructions:

- Do not write anything on this question paper.
- Attempt FOUR questions, choosing at least TWO questions from each section.
- Correctness in spelling, standard and comprehensive academic writing will be taken into account when assessing the answers.
- PROVIDE RELEVANT (REAL-LIFE) EXAMPLES TO YOUR ANSWERS.
- Begin each selected question on a new page in the answer booklet.
- Follow instructions on this question paper and answer booklet carefully.
- Each question carries a total of 25 marks.

SECTION A:

1. Almost all learners will respond to praise. Praise is therefore a strategy that motivates learners.

- a) With at least five examples elucidate what is meant by a strategy. (12 marks)
- b) Explain how you would employ praising as a strategy in your teaching. (13 marks)

2. Analyze what determines a teacher's choice of methods to use in teaching a particular subject. (25 marks)

3. Collaborating is one way a teacher can direct a lesson.

- a) Explain 'Collaboration' to a newly qualified teacher. (13 marks)
- b) Show what the teacher is trying to assess when using collaboration. (12 marks)

SECTION B:

4. a) For effective teaching to take place, a good method must be adopted by a teacher. Describe at least three teaching methods. (12 marks)

- b) Examine the lecture method in the process of teaching and learning. (13 marks)

5. There is more in education than just learning facts. Learners go to school above all to learn how to learn.

- a) Explain any five facts learners learn from school. (12 marks)
- b) Describe the types of curriculum designs in Uganda's Primary education and examine one of them which you mostly love to use in your teaching. (13 marks)

6.Explain how co-curricular activities function as a source of character formation for children in primary school. (25 marks)

7.Identify the major educational services provided in your primary school and write a brief explanation on each. (25 marks)
