

UGANDA MARTYRS UNIVERSITY

Institute of Ethics and Development Studies

COMPUTER LITERACY

Year One

Semester One Final Examination

Academic Year 2013 - 2014

Tuesday: 10th December 2013

2:00pm - 4:00pm

Instructions:

1. Please read the instructions carefully before answering the questions.
 2. Read each question carefully and write legibly.
 3. Answer all questions in the question paper provided
-

1. Due to their diligence, computers are considered to be so powerful. Give other reasons to justify this statement. 6 Marks

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

2. Briefly Describe the following components of the Systems Unit (2 Marks each)
 - i) Expansion slots

.....
.....
.....
.....
ii) RAM

.....
.....
.....
.....
iii) Ports

.....
.....
.....
.....
iv) CPU

.....
.....
.....
.....
v) DVD ROM drive

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
3. Very often computer novices tend to confuse RAM and ROM. Prove that you cannot be prey to this confusion (4 Marks)

- Marks

[illegible]

-
-
-
-
-

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

6. If you were to tabulate students' marks and determine totals and averages, would you use a word processing programme or spreadsheet programme. Justify your choice (8 marks)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

7. Your classmate is arguing that as a development studies student, it is useless to study basic computer literacy. Give four arguments which prove that your classmate is wrong. (4 Marks)

.....

.....

.....

.....