Question one

A Public Private Partnership (PPP) is a contractual agreement between business and public agency (at central or local government level) and a private sector entity. Through this agreement, the skills and assets of each sector (public and private) are shared in delivering a service or facility for the use of the general public in addition to the sharing of potential benefits in the delivery of the service and/or facility. For example the Jinja-Njeru water and wastewater project promoted by stricter national environmental regulations, local industry in the Jinja and Njeru municipality or town council respectively, along Lake Victoria are pursuing a joint water and wastewater treatment system with the absolute aim of maximizing economies of scale and provide more affordable treatment options for commercial and household use.

PPPs in Uganda are also evidently being evolved or emerging in the service industry especially in NAADS, Bus or Taxi park management, markets management to mention but a few.
