SECTION A

1. Explain to your friend the importance of the words Development in Context you have had in this semester putting in mind the underlined words.
2. Comment on the most basic context of development.
3. As a university student of Development Studies, you have been identified by your District Local Authority to assist them to find out whether the development programs in the area deserve the name: "genuine development". How would you go about this assignment?

SECTION B

4. Explain the meaning of human development basing yourself on the HDR 2000.
5. Human Poverty and Income Poverty are one and the same thing. Comment!
6. How does the HDR cater for the gender related issue in human development.
Use some examples to illustrate your points.
