

UGANDA COAST GUARDS UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
Department of Development Studies
Democracy and Development Studies
Diploma/BA Year One Final Exam 2015/2016
Module 4: Gender and Development

Date: Tuesday, 28th June 2016

Time: 10:00 am- 1:00 pm

---

Instructions

- Read each question carefully before answering.
  - Answer THREE (3) Questions.
  - Do not write anything on the question paper.
-

1. Give five reasons why 'gender and development course' is important for a student of democracy and development studies?
2. What is the difference between 'sex' and 'gender'? Using concrete examples, explain three major ways an individual is socialized into gender roles.
3. Identify and explain five major challenges to promoting gender equality in any African country of your choice. Make concrete recommendations to address the challenges above.
4.
  - a. Identify three types of gender based violence common in your country.
  - b. Explains five ways in which gender-based violence undermines development and democracy in your country?
5. Identify five differences between western feminism and African feminism. What do you think western feminist can learn from an African feminist?
6. Division of labour based on gender is the main cause of gender inequalities across the world. Discuss with relevant examples from your country.