

UGANDA MARTYRS UNIVERSITY
Department of Governance and Peace Studies
Bachelor of Local Governance and Human Rights Year Three 2016/2017

Civil Society, NGOs and Development Examination

Duration: 3 Hours

Date: 26th /June 2017

Instructions

- a) Read all questions carefully
- b) All questions carry equal marks
- c) Choose any four questions in all, and any extra questions answered will not be marked nor awarded
- d) Follow the instructions on the examination answer booklet

1. The role of NGOs and civil society in development cannot be ignored. Discuss (25 marks)
2. Justify the statement that southern NGOs are simply 'puppets' of northern NGOs who they depend on for financial resources and technical assistance. (25 marks)
3. How can southern NGOs be more independent so that they are more responsive to the people they serve at the grassroots? (25 marks)
5. How can the northern NGOs continue to be relevant in the developing countries? (25 marks)
6. Which factors contributed to the re-emergence of civil society in the last decade(s) of the twentieth century? (25 marks)
7. How have NGOs influenced social change in the modern state system? (25 marks)

SUCCESS