

Uganda Martyrs University
School of Arts and Social Sciences
Department of Governance, Peace and international Studies

BA LGHR I: 2022/2023

DLGHR 1206: RIGHTS OF MINORITY GROUPS

END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATION

Date: Tuesday 20th June 2023

Time: 2:00pm-5:00pm

Instructions

- Choose only three questions.
- Question number one in section A is compulsory.
- Choose the other two questions from section B.
- Use relevant examples where they apply and are necessary.
- Use not more than three pages for each question.
- Write neatly.

Section A:

1. Explain social, economic and political implications of belonging to a minority group in your country (40 marks).

Section B:

2. Defining a minority in Uganda/Southern Sudan is particularly complex. Explain (30 marks).

3. Every citizen in your country has the potential to belong to a minority group whose rights are often abused. Discuss (30 marks).

4. Minority groups have often been treated as if they have unique human rights. Discuss (30 marks).

5. Discuss the relevance of the African Charter to the rights of the minority groups in Africa (30 marks).

Good luck!