

Uganda Martyrs University

Faculty of Agriculture

Final Examination 2021-2022

Bachelors of Science in Agriculture Year One

Bachelors of Science in Ecological Organic Agriculture Year One

Module: BSAG 1103: Agricultural Policy Regulation

Time: 09:30 am – 12:30 pm Date: Thursday 04th August 2022

Instructions:

- Answer any four questions.
 - Questions carry equal marks
 - Read and understand each question before you attempt it.
 - Do not write anything on the question paper
-

1) Describe some of the strategies government has adopted to ensure agricultural development. (25 marks)

2) Policies play a big role in development of any sector. With specific examples explain the role of agricultural policy in development of agriculture sector in your country. (25 marks)

3) Gender is a crucial issue in the development of any policy of Uganda. Explain how gender issues can be integrated within the agriculture policy of Uganda. (25 marks)

4 a) What is policy advocacy? (5 marks)

b) Explain the various activities you require so that you can advocate a policy on addressing management of crop pests such as army worm in your country. (20 marks)

5a) Explain why bench marking is important when formulating a policy? (15 marks)

b) What are the key roles of major policy formulating agency? (10 marks)

6) There are various ministries/sectors working alongside MAAIF to implement the agricultural policy in Uganda. With examples explain the major roles played by the different sectors/ministries in implementing the agriculture policies of Uganda. (25marks)

7a) What are the challenges facing policy makers and implementers of agricultural policies in Uganda? (10 marks)

b) Explain what the government of Uganda has done to increase food security. (15 marks)

8) Imagine you have been appointed as an official of operation wealth creation in your sub county, discuss the different ways you can advise the government on how to make the program effective. (25 marks)